Stephen DeCesare, CFP® Awarded Admittance as a Member of WiserAdvisor's Directory

Marlton-based Certified Financial Planner™ Awarded Admittance

September 1, 2019 – Marlton N.J. – Independent wealth manager, retirement planner and president of DeCesare Retirement Specialists, Stephen DeCesare, CFP®, was granted admission into WiserAdvisor based on his credentials and qualifications. All members offer their services to investors with a fee rather than solely with commissions, allowing them to assist investors with a variety of different investment options. All members are also properly registered with the SEC, FINRA or other regulatory organizations.

“I am honored to be awarded admission to the WiserAdvisor directory,” stated Stephen DeCesare, CFP®, president of DeCesare Retirement Specialists. “This admittance reaffirms our organization’s commitment to our clients and our vision for partnering with individuals to help them achieve their goals and retirement dreams.”

Because of the strict standards that a financial professional must meet in order to become a member, WiserAdvisor only admits a select few high-quality financial advisors and financial planners. More than 600,000 professionals can provide insurance and financial advice. Less than 1% have been granted membership into WiserAdvisor.

Since 2003, WiserAdvisor has focused on taking much of the guesswork out of finding a qualified financial advisor or financial planner. This is done both through the stringent admittance guidelines, as well as through the information provided to investors about each member advisor. All members must complete an extensive profile outlining their services, qualifications and credentials, including their education background.

Thousands of investors use WiserAdvisor each year to find local financial advisors and planners, and trust that WiserAdvisor will help them find the right professionals to meet their unique needs.

About WiserAdvisor.com
